

QUARTZITE COBBLESTONE

Silver Mountain, reimagined for outdoor living.

Natural strength. Enduring character.

Bring authentic texture and timeless character to outdoor spaces with the AMS Quartzite Cobblestone Collection.

Crafted from durable natural quartzite, each cobblestone features its own subtle variations in colour, tone and texture. The compact square format offers exceptional design versatility, making it ideal for pathways, courtyards, driveways, garden areas and architectural landscapes.

DESIGNED FOR OUTDOOR SPACES

The natural strength of quartzite makes these cobblestones a durable and visually distinctive choice for a range of exterior applications, including:

- Pathways and garden walkways
- Courtyards and entertaining areas
- Driveways
- Landscape borders and detailing
- Residential and commercial outdoor spaces

NATURALLY UNIQUE

Quartzite is a natural material. Variations in colour, veining, texture and surface character are expected and form part of the stone's individual beauty. These natural differences ensure every installation has its own distinctive appearance.
